C1.380(Rev.8-96)-C

Case Report ID: 898552

RD No.: F282753

Sup. ID: 222288

Address of Occurrence: 4721 W OHIO ST CHICAGO IL

The body of a White male (NKA Marek Eryk MAJDAK) was lying face-up on the sidewalk with his head lying primarily to the East and his feet lying primarily to the West. His head was lying in a pool of blood with an apparent gunshot wound. He was wearing a gray with light stripes log-sleeve shirt, white T-shirt, gray corduroy trousers, white socks with a green stripe, and white gym shoes with blue trim. His right front trouser pocket was pulled inside-out with several coins visible.

The PFI's documented the scene, taking photos of the scene and surrounding area of 4721 W. Ohio. Photos were taken of cartridge casings found on the sidewalk, one at 4723 W. Ohio and the other at 4725 W. Ohio. Those casings were recovered and inventoried (inv. #2321181). Photos, including gauged photos, of blood and impressions from the sidewalk from 4721 to 4725 W. Ohio. The M.E. approved removal of the body. Photos were made of the victim's wounds. It was found that there was an additional apparent gunshot wound, that one being to the victim's left buttock. Two blood swabs were taken of the blood on the sidewalk at 4721 W. Ohio and inventoried (Inv. #2321182). Photos were taken of the victim's van parked at 4726 W. Ohio, including possible blood found on the passenger seat of the vehicle. Two swabs were taken of that substance and inventoried (inv. #2321182).

The above noted vehicle, a 1997 Dodge Caravan, was found on the street at 4726 W. Ohio with its emergency flashers on, its front passenger door open, and the window-glass of that door shattered. The vehicle's keys were on the floor of the vehicle. A copy of the victim's pay stub of 12-May-2000 was found in the vehicle and recovered. The vehicle is being held for investigation.

A canvas of the neighborhood was made with the following results:

Home phone: 773-626-3580

She said that she was in her front room watching television when she heard what sounded like a single loud gunshot coming from what she thought was her gangway. She then heard two more possible gunshots, which sounded like they were farther away. She looked out of her front window and saw a Black male, in his twenties, running eastbound past her house towards Kilpatrick. He was wearing dark clothing, but without a jacket or hat. He glanced back over his right shoulder but she didn't see his face well. After a short while she stepped outside and looked around, but did not notice the body of the victim. She did see the victim's van with its lights flashing, but she thought that it might be someone buying dope.

Reporting Detectives observed shoe impressions with apparent blood on the sidewalk in a direction indicating that they were leaving the scene. One of the impressions was made with blood and mud and a gauged photo was made of it. A partial impression of a shoe mark near the body was also photographed.

Reporting Detectives then relocated to the Forensic Institute. Upon closer examination, an apparent bullet-hole was found approximately at midpoint between the victim's left eye and his left ear.

Reporting Detectives then went to the address on the victim's IL ID card, that address was 6952 W. Diversey Ave. At that address no one would respond or answer the door of any of the apartments. Reporting Detectives then proceeded to the Logan Square Aluminum Supply Co. Inc. at 2500 N. Pulaski, which was noted on the found pay stub. That location is the Remodelers Supply Center, which is a division of Logan Square Building Material Supply. Jon OSTOJA, an employee of the company, after extensive searching of records, advised Reporting

Detectives that Marek MAJDAK was a new employee of the company. He had only worked there for two weeks and had received his first paycheck on 12-May-2000. Another employee, Lukasz WEGLOWSKI, a salesman, was listed as a reference for MAJDAK and was scheduled to work today.

WEGLOWSKI arrived at work and he confirmed that he was a reference for MAJDAK and was the boyfriend of MAJDAK's sister. He was shown a picture of MAJDAK, which he identified as MAJDAK. He was then advised of MAJDAK's death. He was very upset by the news, but agreed to assist in notifying MAJDAK's sister. He accompanied Reporting Detectives to his residence in Rosemont where he lives with Joanna ROMANSKA, MAJDAK's sister. She was also notified of MAJDAK's death, which greatly upset her. She was advised of how to contact the Medical Examiner's office and was given a business card to contact Reporting Detectives. She said that she would notify her mother, Teresa ROMANSKA, 570 Clavey Lane, Highland Park, IL 60035, home phone: 847-432-0756. The victim lived with the mother.

Both she and WEGLOWSKI told Reporting Detectives that MAJDAK was a person of good character, that he was a hard worker, and that he was married and had four young children who are presently with their mother, his wife, in Poland. They said that he occasionally drank but did not use illegal drugs. He had told his mother on 11-May-2000 that he was going to go out with friends from work on the evening of 12-May-2000 after work.

Reporting Detectives then went to 4657 W. Erie to locate the person who had called the police to the scene. There had been no response when an attempt was made to make contact earlier. Thomas E. LANDOR said that he had called police after he was told by his brother-in-law, Jessie WALLACE, of that same address, that when he was on his way home from "Coleman's Restaurant" (on Cicero), he was on the North side of the street and saw a van with its window broken out and an unknown body on the sidewalk across the street from it. WALLACE was not at home and business card was left with a request to have him contact the Area.

Reporting Detectives returned to the Area and were contacted by Joanna ROMANSKA. She said that her mother told her that MAJDAK had told her that he had met a girl who works at the "Fantaj" bar (which is located in the vicinity of 2600 N. Pulaski) on Thursday night (11-May-2000). When he told his mother that he was going out with friends, she gave him fifty dollars and told him not to cash his paycheck because she wanted him to start a bank account with it. He agreed to abide by her wishes.

This investigation continues.
